Blair to Host National Night Out – Building Safer, Stronger Community Together

Blair, NE — The City of Blair invites the community to come together for National Night Out on Tuesday August 5th from 6 PM to 8 PM at Generations Park. This annual community-building event is a chance for residents, law enforcement, first responders, and local businesses to connect in a fun and relaxed environment.

Now in its 42nd year, National Night Out is celebrated in more than 17,000 communities across all 50 states, U.S. territories, and military bases worldwide. The event is designed to promote partnerships between law enforcement, emergency personnel, and the communities they serve—truly embracing the mindset that “We are all better together.”

This year’s event in Blair will feature:

- Free food and drinks
- Dunk tank (Bring your best aim, Blair!)
- Emergency vehicles and equipment displays
- Meet-and-greet with local law enforcement and first responders
- Free live music by Rum Runner

“Our goal is to strengthen relationships between neighbors and public safety officials, while celebrating the spirit of this amazing community that makes Blair such a special place.” Said Blair Police Chief Jeremy Kinsey.

Everyone is welcome, and admission is free. Bring your family, invite your neighbors, and help us enjoy a night of unity, fun, and community pride.
